Dear Contestants,

Thank you for choosing Arizona Regional Entertainer of the Year as your preliminary of choice. We are excited to have you as a contestant.

THE HISTORY:

National Entertainer of the Year pageantry has come a long way since its inception in 1985. It was created by George Stinson and Ed Lewis, owners of the successful Connection Complex in Louisville, Kentucky, who drew inspiration from the Female Impersonator of the Year pageant held in Houston, Texas. The late Naomi Sims (Newman Braud), the winner of the first-ever contest, is honored as Entertainer of the Year Emeritus. Today, National Entertainer of the Year is one of the Top 4 most prestigious pageant titles in the country and has two divisions: Entertainer of the Year F.I. and Mr. Entertainer of the Year. Both are held yearly.

The Arizona Entertainer of the Year Pageant has been in existence for over a decade and has been won by some of the most well-known male performers and female impersonators in the state. After a 5-year hiatus, the pageant is making a comeback and is set to continue its legacy of discovering the next Arizona Entertainer of the Year.

WHAT WE'RE LOOKING FOR IN A TITLE HOLDER:

Becoming a title holder in a pageant system means more than just winning a crown and sash. It means becoming an ambassador for the pageant system and embodying the values of integrity and professionalism. Throughout your reign, you will have many opportunities to attend major events and perform at venues throughout the state of Arizona. It is important to always conduct yourself in a professional manner and to be a positive role model for others.

As an ambassador, we also expect you to be involved in the community and to take on a leadership role. This means being an active participant in community service projects and being a voice for causes that are important to you. By doing so, you can make a positive impact on the community and inspire others to do the same.

Remember, being a title holder is not just about the fame and glory. It is about using your platform to make a difference in the world around you. So, embrace your role as an ambassador and make the most of this incredible opportunity to create positive change.

We encourage you to review this contestant packet and if you are interested in competing, please fill out the application and return it to Castro5381@gmail.com by Saturday, March 2, 2024, at 5:00 pm. If you have any questions please don't hesitate to ask, our reigning title holders are also here to help you succeed.
